When Vancouver is the destination, the Wedgewood Hotel is often the property of choice.

This "Five Diamond Award" property is a member of the Relais and Chateaux Hotel Group. It is privately owned and operated by the Greek Skalbania family who offers the essence of the intimate European hotel tradition to new and loyal return guests.

The Wedgewood Hotel combines the finest service, accommodation, amenities and surroundings to make for a personalized, yet professional stay. Along with the finest traditional furnishings and décor, is the latest in high speed connectivity, fitness and spa services. Luxurious towels, robes and bed linens pamper you and attentive staff anticipate your every need in record time.

All of the spacious, well-appointed rooms have balcony access and many have Jacuzzi tubs for relaxed bathing. The rooms afford stunning views of Robson Square with its iconic architectural structures, manicured gardens and waterfalls.
